BYU-Idaho Hosts Annual Cultural Night to Celebrate Global Diversity

REXBURG-ID, November 11, 2025- Brigham Young University–Idaho invites the Rexburg community to its annual Cultural Night on Saturday, November 15, 2025 for an evening of vibrant performances, soda, and multicultural finale from around the world. Hosted in the Hart Gymnasium from 8 to 11 p.m., the event welcomes both students and local residents to celebrate global traditions and connect through music, dance, and food.

Cultural Night is one of BYU-Idaho's most anticipated cross-community events, bringing together students from more than 80 countries to share the music, dance, dress, and stories that shape their identities. Visitors will have the opportunity to enjoy:

- Live performances from international student groups
- Free drinks for before or after the event
- A multicultural finale performance

More than 1,500 attendees participated last year, and organizers expect even greater turnout in 2025 as campus international programs continue to grow. "We love seeing the Rexburg community and our students come together for this event," said Krystal Rodriquez, one of the event organizers.

Admission is $5 for students, $10 for the public. Families, students, and community members are invited to celebrate the unique cultures that shape the spirit of BYU-Idaho.
